Christina M. Roup

Education

Doctorate of Philosophy, Communicative Disorders (Audiology), 2002 University of Wisconsin-Madison, Madison, Wisconsin Dissertation: Dichotic Word Recognition in Older Adults

Master of Arts, Communicative Disorders (Audiology), 1995 California State University Long Beach, Long Beach, California Thesis: Speech Discrimination Functions for the CID W-22 Test in Multi-Talker Noise With Hearing-Impaired Subjects

Bachelor of Arts, Communicative Disorders, 1993 California State University Long Beach, Long Beach, California

Professional Experience

Visiting Scientist (Sabbatical), January - March, 2014 National Acoustic Laboratories, Macquarie University, Sydney, Australia

Associate Professor, October 2011 - present Department of Speech & Hearing Science, The Ohio State University, Columbus, OH

Visiting Research Faculty, June 2010 - August 2010 U.S. Air Force Research Laboratory, Battlespace Acoustics Branch, Wright-Patterson Air Force Base, Dayton, OH

Research Audiologist (WOC), July 2008 - present Department of Veterans Affairs, VA Medical Center, Mt. Home, TN

Assistant Professor, September 2004 - present Department of Speech & Hearing Science, The Ohio State University, Columbus, OH

Research Audiologist, September 2001 - August 2004
Department of Veterans Affairs, Martinez VA Outpatient Clinic, Martinez CA

Staff Audiologist, September 2000 - September 2001 Department of Veterans Affairs, WBJ Dorn VA Medical Center, Columbia, SC

Pre-Doctoral Fellow / Clinical Fellow, July 1998 - August 2000 Department of Veterans Affairs, VA Medical Center, Mt. Home, TN

Certification & Licensure

Certificate of Clinical Competence - Audiology (ASHA)

Professional Affiliations

American Academy of Audiology American Auditory Society American Speech-Language-Hearing Association Ohio Academy of Audiology Sigma Xi

Honors

Ohio Academy of Audiology Research Award, 2009

The Hearing Journal's 'The Best of Audiology Literature 2006' for the Roup, Wiley & Wilson (2006) article in the Journal of the American Academy of Audiology.

Grants

Faculty Small Grant (2013). Division of Social & Behavioral Sciences, The Ohio State University (Funded amount: $2000).

NIH-NIDCD R33 (4 R33 DC 11769). Community-Based Kiosks for Hearing Screening and Education. PI: Patrick Feeney. Role: Subcontractor

NIH-NIDCD R21 (1R21DC011769-01). Community-Based Kiosks for Hearing Screening and Education. PI: Patrick Feeney. Role: Subcontractor

Faculty Small Grant (2008, 2009, 2010). Division of Social & Behavioral Sciences, The Ohio State University (funded amount per year: $1,000).

American Academy of Audiology New Investigator Research Award (2007). Monaural vs. Binaural Word Recognition Among Older Adult Listeners.

Seattle Epidemiologic Research and Information Center (ERIC) Pilot Project (2000). Prevalence of Hearing Loss Among the Veteran Population in Beaver Dam, WI. Noe, CM, Wilson, RH, Cruickshanks, KL, Wiley, TL, & Roup, CM.

Fellowships

Veterans Affairs Predoctoral Fellowship, Audiology, James H. Quillen VA Medical Center, Mountain Home, Tennessee, July, 1998 - August, 2000.

US Department of Education Research and Instructional Training Grant, University of Wisconsin-Madison, Department of Communicative Disorders, Madison, Wisconsin, August, 1995 - June, 1998.